

MACDONALD GOVERNMENT VIRTUALLY AT END

No Group Bludgeon For King

Asks West To Consider Seriously The Position Of The Liberals

SPEAKS TO CROWDS AT PRINCE ALBERT

Premier Repeats History Of His Dominion-Wide Cabinet Formation

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Oct. 8.—(By Canadian Press)—That the Liberal party was not antagonistic to the West, but was handicapped in carrying out its policy by the fact that the party from the West, was the pit of Premier King's speech here this evening to an audience of 3,000 people drawn from almost every part of northern Saskatchewan, traced the cause of the present financial difficulty of the government to the way he repeated that the present finances of the government would not be improved by the introduction of a budget, but that the party was to complete it and he asked the West to provide what was required to the demands for economy which he and other parts of the dominion to exercise.

The present action of the government in repaying the line could be taken as a sign of good intentions.

Needed Prairie Support

The premier went to the seriously considered the position of the party with its attitude to the West, with its restricted support from the prairies.

Any blue blooded Scot was prepared to swear to the rightness of his principles, but no man would allow himself to be forced into action by the pressure of a majority.

The past history of the Liberal party had shown that it had been the most progressive party in the country.

Its immigration and tariff policies were all shaped in the interest of the West, and the party had failed to defeat in its attempts to provide new markets for the western products.

The only hope for the successful administration of the party lay in the return to the two party system.

Well Represented

The premier concluded by repeating his statement that the cabinet formation and claimed that for the first time since confederation every province had a representative in the cabinet of the dominion, and this in spite of the fact that they had practically no representation in the Senate.

He supported the claim of the Liberal party and the government.

The man in the boat has refused offers of aid and will tell nothing of himself except that he is on his way from Cleveland to New York on a pleasure trip.

CITY-HOSPITAL NOT EXPENSIVE IN OPERATION

Government Report Shows Expenditures Lowest Of Larger Ones Of Province

PROPERTY OWNERS ASK INVESTIGATION

Claim There Is Something Wrong With Management Because Of Deficit

The cost per day for running the Royal Alexandra Hospital compares more favorably with that of other hospitals in the province according to the report supplied on the Government Hospital for the year ending June 30, 1923.

During that period the daily average was $20.12, while the daily average for the Royal Victoria Hospital was $24.45, and the Galt Hospital at Lethbridge $25.40.

The hospital in the city was a statutory maximum, and parliament has legislated that it shall be $25.50 per day.

But the cost per day does not reflect the actual cost of running the hospital.

The next question is whether the commissioners is whether the rates set out in the agreement do not exceed the amount of money received, secret, but it would not be surprising if the commissioners were to break new ground in their findings.

They are to make a report to the minister of health by Dec. 1, 1924.

A POSSIBLE SUSPECT.

The court at Toronto is trying to find out who was responsible for the false returns made to the Government as to the position of the affairs of the Home Bank. The line of defense put up by the counsel for the accused seems to leave open the inference that the party to blame may have been the janitor.

THE RECEPTION TO THE PREMIER.

Preparations are complete to give Premier King a reception at Edmonton worthy the man, the position, and the city. While he will be hailed by local Liberals as their party's outstanding leader, he will also be taken to task by the public who come to represent the head of the Dominion Government from one of the most important centres in the half of Canada that holds the destiny of the Dominion. Edmonton and the enormous country tributary to it cannot be too intimately known to the leaders of national thought and the directors of public policy.

CUSTODY OF THE RADICALS.

The British labor party has formally invited the communist element to get out. The leaders may have been only anticipating matters, as the radicals have long been chafing under the failure of the Macdonald Government to follow the lead of Moscow, and were fairly likely to run away if they were not invited to become communists. In any case, the Government stands to gain more than it will lose by disassociation from the irresponsible. When the public are allowed to suppose that the "reds" speak for the organized wage-earners the latter suffers, whether his aim is to elect a member of parliament or to amend his working conditions.

MAKING GOOD THE PROMISE.

On Monday the taxpayers of Edmonton insisted the city council to ratify the agreement made with the National railways for the construction of the new terminals in this city. On Tuesday the National management called for a meeting of the shareholders, the meeting to which King agreed to be carried under the tracks. It is in order to recall that there was nothing in the written agreement binding the railway to rush matters in this way. Declarations of such intention had been given by the railway officials. The new track Canadian will be carried out in spirit and not with a merrily adience to the letter of the document.

OPENING A NEW MARKET.

The new trade treaty with Australia is an attempt to realize a degree of the power of arranging the world's production by the League for a system of preferential tariffs. An arrangement of that kind can only be built up by the negotiation of contracts between the Dominions, reciprocal agreements based upon the possibility of exchanging commodities with mutual profit. By the new treaty Canada will be in a position to give the same rights given to Australia and New Zealand as are given to imports from Great Britain, while in return Canadians will be given the privilege of shipping goods to Australia under lower rates of duty than are imposed upon similar products originating elsewhere. How large will be the resultant benefit to Canada? It is when the period has been tried, but the Dominions are distant enough in climate, resources and products to give room for the creation of a very considerable trade to the advantage of both.

FINANCIAL FANCIES VERSUS THE FACTS.

Mr. Ewing continues to entertain his audience with his financial theories, relating the financial history of the successive Liberal governments which held office in Alberta prior to 1921.

Or Tuesday evening he is reported to have been at the Memorial Hall that when the Stewart Government left office the liabilities of the Province were held by himself—totalled up to something like $30,000,000.

As the risk of discussing such exploits in the realm of fiction may be suggested that he might be asked to look for a somewhat closer adherence to facts on the part of a candidate who asks for their assistance and support to the honor and the welfare of representing them in the Provincial Legislature?

In his budget speech, delivered in March 1921, Premier Greenfield, at that time acting Provincial Treasurer, gave the net debt of the Province as $24,000,000. Six months later the Stewart Government had paid off $10,000. At the end of 1923 the debt of the Province, as set out by Mr. H. G. Reid, Provincial Treasurer, was $71,700,000. The estimate for the current year provides for a reduction of $2,750,000 to the debt, making a projected total at the end of the present year of $67,550,000.

On the evidence of Premier Greenfield and Mr. H. G. Reid, the Province does not owe $90,000,000 now, never did, and will not owe with a clear million dollars of that amount when the Government of the year 1921 is in power.

Was the White Queen so silly as her creator would have us to believe? One of the most remarkable instances of the human capacity for wonder, the difference between those who exercise their imagination and those who do not, is that the former can live life and an empty one. Sir John Marston, in his exercise of his imagination supplemented by a knowledge of the past, can make the seemingly impossible things.

As a result of the present situation, this once-dreamer-in-exile explained to the share-holders the advantages of his new method of wireless transmission, and the results were so startling that not only have we been able to establish satisfactory communications for the first time in history the human voice speaking in England was caught and distinctly heard.

The most curious thing about Marston's announcement relating to his system was the complete calmness with which the shareholders were completely non-plussed. Not one excited heart was drawn apparently by the seemingly impossible thing.

Poor benighted shareholders! Their increased dividends cannot compensate them for the loss of their dividends even though the system is the best in the world.

Successive Liberal Governments held power in Alberta for seventeen years. On the evidence of the present Premier they incurred indebtedness at the average rate of less than $4,350,000 per year during those years. On the showing of the Provincial Treasurer it has added to the indebtedness about $20,000,000, an average rate of approximately $6,600,000 per year.

When the Liberals came into power in Alberta the Province had practically nothing in the way of permanent highway equipment. They borrowed money, issued bonds, fees, state bridge, Nothing in the way of capital investment had been made to provide the equipment necessary in the carrying on of a provincial administration. The money they borrowed was converted into parliament buildings, land titles offices, post offices, telephones, state bridge, and other improvements necessary and permanent. And so from the home for delinquent children and from what has been done during the present season to build permanent highways, what has the Greenfield Government to show for the $20,000,000 it has added to the debt?

The present Government has increased taxation. It has enjoyed a larger revenue than any predecessor ever had. It has undertaken no extensive program of construction. It has brought in a deficit every year it has been in office. And it has added to the government debt an average rate of increase of that of the Government which preceded it—and whose record Mr. Ewing reviews with characteristic inaccuracy while paying no attention to the wild career of the present administration.

A vote for Mr. Ewing is a vote for the Greenfield Government. He is trying to ensure by misrepresenting the record of its predecessors; a vote for continued extravagance, high speed debt increase, high taxation and an annual deficit.

THE MARITIMERS APPROVE.

The election of the Liberal candidate in the by-election in Northumberland, New Brunswick, is not a gain for the Government. But it is a victory which defeat might have been expected. The Maritimers hold the balance of power in the Maritime provinces. In New Brunswick, as in the other older provinces, the welfare of industrial enterprises is much more important to the public than in the prairie country. A closed factory means people with families and wives, and their positions are not limited to the constituency or the district in which the minister occurs. New Brunswick very evidently has not noticed the industrial epidemic that Mr. Meighen says broke out among manufacturing concerns with the advent of the King Government, nor does it seem to have been noticed by the Opposition leader visiting the riding. As he is to be supposed that he told the citizens the story he has so often repeated elsewhere, about the frightful mortality which he claims has occurred among Canadian industrial enterprises during the last few years, the details of which he keeps so closely locked in his desk at Ottawa. Northumbrian voters apparently put the story down at about what the public generally judge it to be worth. Cheap machinery for production is not a policy that closes factories, or threatens to close them. It makes industry endurable, and it makes it attractive, and correspondingly makes for the prosperity of a community in which the manufacturing of local raw materials is an important economic factor.

GEORGIA.

Georgia, like Britain, gallantly stood in the path of the Hun. It tenaciously refused to grant the Turks passage through their country to fight the British. It was invaded by the invaders. After the war a Republic was set up in Georgia, but the Bolsheviks, despite their alliance with the Allies, overthrew the Government and set up the Soviet system. The proud and ancient nation of Georgia has been reduced to the status of the Bolsheviks' playground. And now when its whole territory is being drenched with blood by the Bolsheviks, it is to be expected that they will be beaten.

Washington Goes Down Before Attack of McGrawmen

NEW YORK GIANTS WIN FIFTH GAME WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES

Walter Johnson Stands Out As Gallant But Tragic Figure
Fifty Thousand Turn Out To Cheer Him And See Him Fail To Realize His Ambition

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.— Walter Johnson, the "old master," buckled on his armor today for a final fight for the glory of world series victory that he has sought for 18 years, but fate, with the might of bats of his foes, turned him back.

Unleashing a furious attack, the New York Giants battered the great veteran to defeat for the second straight time, captured the fifth game of the series from the Senators by a score of 6 to 2, and left tonight with Washington the 1924 world's champion within their reach.

The Giants, coming back today after the most powerful type of attack that carried them to victory yesterday, now had a formidable task before them. They had to win one more victory to clinch the series and get into the World Series, a baseball crown and a new big league record.

The Senators, who have shared the present record of three series victories with Canada, had given up all hope and heavy favorites tonight to carry off the series, which they had won when the latter was injured, smashing out four hits in five times at bat.

The Giants, however, had the field and established himself as the greater favorite in the most spectacular battles, for today they spiked Washington's big gun and cut down the resources for the rest of the fight.

It was the first time in 18 years, who was prevented from starting today's game because of his victory over Johnson on the opening day, is able to take his place in the starting line-up.

Giants will have an excellent pro-

A Gallant but Tragic Figure

Johnson, who had a gallant but tragic figure, one of the greatest players ever known.

Another out-pouring of 50,000 fans, tame as it was, came chiefly in the hope of seeing Johnson hang up his spikes, which have been with the Senators throughout his career.

Johnson's efforts were particularly evident for Johnson, they cheered him on, and he was more keenly than Johnson himself when the series had revived Washington's hopes in the eighth inning that "Big Barney," one of the greatest pitchers in the history of professional baseball, had ended his career.

Johnson, however, continued admirably by the Giants' bats until it was a sad spectacle to witness over nearly a score of years and his voice was failing him.

That caused him to open when he knocked. Yet probably no one more keenly than Johnson himself when the series had revived Washington's hopes in the eighth inning that "Big Barney," one of the greatest pitchers in the history of professional baseball, had ended his career.

Hats off to "Bucky."

Under this terrific bombardment, manager "Bucky" Harris to keep Johnson in the game, the outcome of the Senators' championship hopes, but the young Washington team was willing to accept defeat rather than cap the climax of its stemmer.

FOOTLIGHTS AND FILMS

GOOD VAUDEVILLE OPENS HERE TODAY

Ice Skating Novelty and Whirlwind Dancing Are Featured at Pantages

The headliners of a high degree of excellence have been secured for the Pantages vaudeville bill opening this afternoon—indeed the entire bill is now complete. The advance notices from other cities in the country indicate that the audience will find it even more enjoyable than the all-star program that delighted the audiences here.

Jack and June Laughlin and their famous "Dancing Wild Co." will have one of the favored positions on the bill, and they are bringing to the stage the most popular supporting company of eight artists that has ever been assembled to assist in the making of the Pantages' new circuit. This Broadway production has been experimental in its nature, and it is designed as an ideal background for the whirlwind dancing of Jack and June Laughlin, the Ruth Sisters, Myrtle and other members of the company.

The stars of the Pantages, Eddie and Pauline, have appeared in the most popular shows in the skating novelty, and it is a safe assertion that they are one of the acts that will always be welcome.

"FRENCH LEAVE" IS FINE HUMAN INTEREST PLAY

Again Please Large Audience — Harold Nelson Praised Production

A dynamic singer, Elsie Mehlinger, is the added attraction and a program of comedy songs interspersed with scenes from the play.

She's share of the laughs. Mr. Mehlinger has a personality that makes him a natural for the stage audience.

Gold and Edwards are a pair of dynamic Frenchmen typical of the Parisians and they'll be here in advance notices from other cities in the country indicate that the audience will find it even more enjoyable than the all-star program that delighted the audiences here.

As it has been several times that the permanent players of the company management is to produce only those plays which have not been seen before. In this connection, in offering "French Leave" for the first time, Mr. Fairbanks has refrained from using any of his own scenes.

The "Thief of Bagdad," or "The Magic Carpet," is a picture which holds your undivided attention throughout the entire evening.

"French Leave" is a play that requires great skill and artistry to be called a big, human play, filled with splendid comedy, touches of pathos, and a story that holds your undivided attention throughout the entire evening.

The "Thief of Bagdad," or "The Magic Carpet," is a picture which holds your undivided attention throughout the entire evening.

It may be said that the characters in the play are well drawn, and the abilities of the members of the permanent players and as reliable as any other clever performance is given.

The more important members of the cast are Julianne Johnston, for whom the public has come to look forward to her performances.

Milton Sills, two of America's best known actors, supporting cast is remarkable in its quality. It stands that have played a prominent part in the development of the great amusement industry.

Kathleen Williams, who is seen as Dorothy Van Clark, is best remembered for her role in the popular serial, "The Adventures of Katharine." She has adventured into the multiple reel drama and has been starred and featured in many pictures, including "The Man With a Gun," in which she plays Cherry Cheshire.

Lowell Thomas, whose work on the legitimate stage as leading man for David Belasco, is in the forefront of the world's great actors, and the author of the screen's handiest mete. Only recently he was starred on Broadway, and he has been particularly engaged for the role of Mammoth in "The Man With a Gun."

Henry B. Walthall often called the Mansfield of the screen, portrays the rôle of the King of Bagdad, Dorothy Van Clark creates chess in the double triangle of the story.

Brown's Popular

Brown's particularly the reddish brown, in velvet and silk stockings, etc. They combine particularly well with fashionable furs.
